Classroom Signs

Post signs on opposite sides of the classroom - students move (or point) to true/false after statement is shared.

TRUE

An illustration of a cream-colored notepad with a dark red shadow, pinned to a red background with two blue paper clips. The word 'FALSE' is written in large, white, bold, sans-serif capital letters on a red rectangular background with rounded corners. At the bottom of the notepad, there is a pink ruler on the left and two pencils, one blue and one pink, on the right.
